Carol of the Bells

The musical score is arranged in four systems. Each system contains three staves: an Alto staff (top), a Piano right-hand staff (middle), and a Piano left-hand staff (bottom). The Alto part begins with a whole rest in the first three measures, followed by a melodic line in the fourth measure. The Piano part features a rhythmic accompaniment of eighth notes in the right hand and chords in the left hand. The key signature is one flat (B-flat) and the time signature is 3/4. The Alto part has a treble clef with a soprano C-clef, and the Piano parts have a grand staff with treble and bass clefs.

First system of musical notation, featuring a treble clef, a bass clef, and a grand staff. The music is in a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a 2/4 time signature. The treble clef part contains a melody of eighth and sixteenth notes. The bass clef part provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

Second system of musical notation, continuing the piece. It maintains the same key signature and time signature. The melody in the treble clef continues with similar rhythmic patterns, while the bass clef accompaniment provides a steady harmonic foundation.

Third system of musical notation. The treble clef part shows a continuation of the melodic line. The bass clef part features a more active accompaniment with some chordal movement and a final note held over into the next system.

Fourth system of musical notation, concluding the piece. The treble clef part ends with a final note, and the bass clef part provides a concluding accompaniment with a final chord and a double bar line.
